CONGRESSMAN CLARK ADDRESSES LEGISLATORS

Defends Himself Before House of Representatives Relative to Alexander Resolution.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 16.—Asserting that he is answerable to the people of the Second Florida District and not to the State Legislature, Congressman Frank Clark opposed the resolution by Representative Alexander of Volusia, denouncing him for alleged utterances made on the floor of Congress, in a two-hours' speech before the Florida House of Representatives last night.

The hall was crowded to the doors and the speaker won frequent applause, for even his political enemies concede his ability as a speaker. The resolutions were not acted upon, as they are set for a special order for April 27th.

Congressman Clark quoted his utterances from The Congressional Record and claimed that he didn't attack Champ Clark or say that the Florida Legislature instructed him to speak against Bryan. He reiterated his attacks upon Bryan, designating him as "that Nebraska Populist." He brought many arguments to bear against the Democratic leader and claimed that he is already a prospective leader for 1912.

He claimed that he had done more work for the cause of the party during the campaigns while Bryan was the standard-bearer than all the back-ers of the resolutions put together.

"Yes, I'll work for him again if he is nominated by the party in 1912," he said in reply to a question. "The people of the South in '72 had to hold their noses and vote for Horace Greely."

Before continuing his discussion of Bryan the Congressman paid his respects to Representative Alexander of Volusia, who introduced the resolutions. He stated that because of the resolutions he has decided to stand for re-election and challenge Alexander and any others to run against him before the people of the Second district.

"No self-respecting white Democrat in the South can stand for the further effort of this man to reach the Presidency when he believes in the Government ownership of railroads," said Congressman Clark. Under this he claimed negroes would hold all positions on the railroads as they now hold them in the free delivery service.

"Do you want this condition of affairs? If so, follow the lead of the Populistic Nebraskan, and if the sensible business interests of this country can ever be chloroformed into sleep on that day of election you may succeed in achieving it."

Claiming that the Southern white primary settles the matter satisfactorily and that direct election of United States Senators would soon give the big Northern States enough power to enlarge their representation and pass a force bill through the Senate, he attacked this Bryanistic principle. He claimed Bryan to be responsible for the Denver platform provision for free tariff on lumber and charged his leadership with being responsible for the inroads of the Republican party into the old solid

LAFONTISEE'S DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

MONOXIDE POISONING, SO SAYS THE CORONER'S JURY.

Further Particulars Learned Which Substantiate First Statement of The Sun on Monday.

That the death of J. O. LaFontisee was purely accidental and not suicide, as was first published by several papers throughout the country, was the finding of the coroner's jury, who pronounced it accidental death due to monoxide poisoning.

His friends here disbelieved the report from the first, and the relatives had an investigation started which will be heard from within the next few days, as the party sent from here has not been communicated with since his arrival in the National capital.

The Sun also disbelieved the theory advanced by the newspaper reports, and being furnished with information that justified this belief, withheld comment on the case until now. We reproduce an article from The Washington Daily Times of April 14th, which was mailed this office by W. H. Draeger, a former citizen of Gainesville:

"Following an autopsy performed at the undertaking establishment of Thomas W. Hindle, Coroner Nevitt this afternoon gave a certificate of accidental death in the case of J. O. LaFontisee, a title expert in the Forestry Service who was found dead yesterday in a bath room, at the Regent Hotel.

"Coroner Nevitt said that the autopsy revealed that death was due to asphyxiation, with the characteristics of carbon monoxide poisoning.

"The body of Mr. LaFontisee, who had been in the Government service since January 22, will be shipped to his home in Jacksonville, Fla., this evening."

REMAINS LAID TO REST.

Large Crowd Attend the Services at St. Patrick's Church.

The large number who attended the funeral services of the late J. O. LaFontisee at the church Friday afternoon was evidence of the high esteem in which the young man was held by his hosts of acquaintances and friends in Gainesville, his home city.

Long before the hour for the services the church was comfortably filled and upon the arrival of the corpse, members of the family and the Elks lodge, almost every available space in the large building was occupied.

The services were conducted by Father P. J. Lynch under the usual impressive Catholic ceremony, after which the remains were conveyed to Evergreen cemetery and laid to rest, it having finally been decided to place them here instead of at Hawthorn.

Many friends of deceased called at the home Friday morning to view the remains. He was highly regarded here for his many manly traits and kindnesses to thousands during life.

The floral offerings from orders of which he was a member and friends of the family were as handsome and profuse as ever seen in the city, it requiring an extra vehicle to transport them to the grave.

Many out-of-town friends were present to pay their last respects and further attest their deep sympathy for the bereaved family.

The deceased was a member of Fernandina Lodge, B. P. O. E., and this lodge instructed the Gainesville lodge to look after the remains, which they did and attended in a body. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias of Jacksonville.

NO DOWNWARD REVISION IN SENATE TARIFF BILL

If Measure Should Pass in Present State, President Taft Honor-Bound to Veto It.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—If the Senate tariff bill should pass both houses of Congress with its present schedules, President Taft would have to veto it if he wished to live up to his pre-election promises.

Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island, who drew up the bill, did not provide for revision downward, and that—revision downward—was what President Taft prophesied would happen if he became the nation's chief executive.

The Aldrich bill is in effect and purpose the Dingley law, already existing. The policy of tariff revision upon which President Taft made his campaign and for which he called the present "extraordinary" session of Congress, was apparently not taken into consideration by the Senate boss.

"The tariff situation in a nutshell, as it stands up to date," declared a prominent member of Congress today, in expressing the general view of the Democratic members toward the Aldrich measure, "may be summed up like this: The Dingley tariff law, which is now in existence, became unpopular because the consumer found it increased the prices of food stuffs and wearing apparel without having any noticeable effect toward advancing wages proportionately. President Taft led the people to believe that if the Republican party was maintained in power it would revise the Dingley tariff downward. On this promise the Republicans were maintained in power. The special session of Congress was called to revise the tariff downward. A bill was reported from the House Ways and Means Committee, now known as the Payne bill, which did not revise downward, but increased the tax on necessities along the line. The Democrats fought the measure tooth and nail. They exposed one joker after another. The Republican majority of the House passed the bill over the Democrats, and it went to the Senate and was immediately referred to the Senate Committee on Finance. The Finance Committee has reported the bill back to the Senate. The rate on gloves and hosiery had been advanced by the House, and the Finance Committee restores the duty on these articles to where they were in the Dingley law. What is the net gain in revision downward? There has been none. The revisionists are now back right where they started. The only important change is that the consumer is just a little worse off than before the revision started, because the Aldrich bill rates average in advance of the Dingley rates. And the most ominous feature of the situation is that the Aldrich clique is still revising."

The Aldrich bill is reaping almost as much criticism as the Payne measure.

When the bill first came out of the Senate Finance Committee, the general disposition was to compare it to the Payne bill and to pronounce it an improvement. But when com-

Beard Prohibition Bill Special Order for Apr. 23

TALLAHASSEE, April 16.—Despite the efforts of Senator Beard, the Senate yesterday declined to consider his statutory prohibition bill when it came up as a special order, but postponed the special order until Friday of next week.

The action of the Senate was not intended to be a reflection on the bill at all. It was taken because Senator McMullen explained that on that date the temperance committees of both houses will consider the constitutional amendments and will hear arguments on both sides of the question. Senator McMullen asked that the bill be taken up at the same time.

The Senate killed the bill of Senator Sloan repealing the present bill legalizing horse racing. But there is another bill before the Senate having the same object in view, as well as, one in the House.

Senator Williams' bill prohibiting the attendance of negroes upon white gatherings and vice versa, was also reported unfavorably and indefinitely postponed.

Senator Bailey Starts the Fight for Income Tax

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 16.—Senator Bailey yesterday introduced an income tax amendment to the tariff bill. It provides for a straight tax of 3 per cent on all incomes above $5,000 a year. It exempts all incomes from Federal, State, county and municipal securities, salaries of all State officers and incomes of corporations below $5,000. Mr. Bailey does not attempt to avoid the constitutional questions and in effect challenges them.

Mr. Bailey said that the tariff bill reported to the Senate was in the main the same as that of 1894. His income tax amendment, he said, was the same as the law which had formerly been enacted with minor exceptions. He had in this amendment raised the exemption from incomes of $4,000 to incomes of $5,000, and had raised the rate of tax from 2 to 3 per cent, which, he said, would result in a greater revenue than would the 2 per cent tax of $4,000 incomes.

Lively Debate in House on Wall's Reimbursement Bill

TALLAHASSEE, April 16.—Proposing that in all prosecutions of criminal cases in the State courts, the complainant or the person injured shall, as in civil actions, where convictions are effected, receive damage as reimbursement for injury sustained, a bill which was introduced by Mr. Wall of Bradford created an animated discussion in the lower branch of the Legislature yesterday morning.

The bill provides that in all prosecutions of criminal cases in State courts for larceny, theft, breaking and entering, obtaining money by false or fraudulent pretense, or for offenses of like character, where property is a permanent loss to the owner, it shall be the duty of the trial judge to admit testimony as to the true nature of all such property or money of which the owner has been permanently deprived and the jury upon rendering a verdict of guilty against the defendant, shall state in such finding the true value of the property lost; that the judge shall give a certificate to the injured person, showing the amount of damages, the certificate to be paid by the officer collecting the fine imposed.

If sentence is imposed, the county commissioners shall pay the certificate out of the fine and forfeiture fund of the county, but if the convicted person be a State convict, the State Comptroller shall pay the certificate out of the funds derived from the hire of State convicts, provided that no certificate shall be paid unless sentence is sufficiently long to compensate the State for the costs of the trial and conviction.

A measure of this character has been before the Legislature for the past several sessions. The Wall bill was introduced several days ago in the House and referred to the Judiciary Committee, which reported unfavorably upon the measure.

Quite noticeable was the lining-up in opposition to the bill of the lawyer members of the House, who hold that although the passage of the bill would not affect their profession one way or another, they could see no good merits contained by the measure in its present form. Upon the reading of the unfavorable report of the committee, motion was made to have 200 copies of the bill immediately printed. This motion was lost.

Mr. Chaires of Lafayette offered an amendment to the effect that the law shall not apply to any person who has a good civil right of action against the party defendant, which prevailed.

Motion to indefinitely postpone action upon the bill was lost by a vote of 53 to 12.

Mr. Roberson of Suwannee then offered an amendment that the proposed law apply only in circuit court cases. This motion was lost.

The bill now goes to the Engrossing Committee and will probably be passed.

Resolution Withdrawn.

Mr. Roberson of Suwannee asked privilege to withdraw resolution offered on previous day inviting Dr. Andrew Sled to address House.

Those who offered amendments were willing and the resolution was withdrawn. Mr. Roberson stated that he now feared the resolution may cause embarrassment should it be adopted.

MARINES LYNCHED COMMANDER OF SHIP

NAZIM PASHA PUT IN COMMAND OF FIRST ARMY CORPS.

Soldiers Cheered Grand Vizier and War Minister Who Advised
Obedience to Officers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 16.—The third day of the revolutionary movement in the capital was marked by some disorders, the most serious of which was a demonstration by marines, who objected to the new minister of marine, Vice Admiral Adjelm Pasha. The marines gathered in force and seized and conveyed to the palace Arif Bey, commander of the battleship Assar-I-Tewfik, a member of the committee of union and progress, who ordered the guns of his ship trained on the Yildiz Kiosk when the rising was at its height, with the intention of supporting the committee.

Arrived at the Yildiz Kiosk, the men lynched Arif Bey, notwithstanding the efforts of the palace guard to save him.

Although public confidence is by no means restored by the reformation of the cabinet, an excellent impression has been produced by the appointment of Nazim Pasha as commander of the first army corps, and this has been strengthened by the nomination of Memduh Pasha to command the first division at Constantinople. Edhem Pasha, the new minister of war, and Nazim Pasha yesterday made the round of the barracks in the city and exhorted the soldiers to obey their officers. They were well received and heartily cheered.

Porte circles are extremely disquieted by news from Saloniki and Monastir, where the influence of the committee of union and progress is strong. Officers of the porte have received telegrams from these sections demanding the re-establishment of the status quo ante, failing which the committee leaders threaten to march on Constantinople with the entire third army corps, whose officers are now in communication with the second army corps, with a view to co-operation. The later corps, however, recently opposed the committee.

A committee of Ulema in the capital has issued pamphlets explaining the movement which they assert is in no wise directed against the constitutional government. On the contrary the committee emphasized the fraternity between the Moslems and Christians and encourages all to co-operate for the welfare of the country.

Young Turks Propose to Fight.

BERLIN, April 16.—A special dispatch to The Lokal Anzeiger from Saloniki, says that after a mass meeting, which was held there yesterday to protest against the changes which have been made in the Turkish cabinet, the Young Turks' committee decided to march on Constantinople with the third army corps, of which twenty battalions have been mobilized. The railroad company has received orders to prepare all available cars for the transport of the troops to the capital. Jazie Bey is expected there tonight with 10,000 troops. All business is at a standstill throughout the city.

JONESVILLE NOTES.

JONESVILLE, April 16.—Mrs. H. M. Andrews has returned to her home after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hathcox.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hamilton of Newberry visited at Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Griffin's Sunday.

W. J. Holt of Newberry visited friends and relatives here Sunday.

Misses Stella and Irene Miller were shopping in Newberry Monday morning.

On last Wednesday afternoon at about 3:30 o'clock our church burned down. It caught on the top from a tree, which had been ignited from the burning woods. It is our plan to rebuild just as soon as we can. A colored farmer who was plowing in a near-by field saved two lamps and a bible—everything else was burned. The trees are badly scorched, but some of them will soon be all right again. Only two or three were killed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Watson gave a dance last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lassiter are entertaining the latter's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Warden have moved to a place near Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Cadillac, Mich., have returned to their home after spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Warden.

The "Trades Extravaganza."

The Sun regrets that the program of the "Trades Extravaganza" is of such lengthy nature that we cannot attempt to mention the many worthy scenes and advertisements that were exhibited. To give such a description would require more than three columns, and as we feel that we could not slight anyone in the matter, therefore deem it best to let the matter stand.

CONGRESSMAN CLARK ADDRESSES LEGISLATORS

Democratic States. If Bryan is re-nominated Georgia will go Republican, as will other Southern States, he contended.

In concluding a summary of the advance made by Republicans in securing power in Democratic States, he concluded: "There are some of the fruits of Bryanism, and as for me I stand unalterably opposed to a continuance of the suicidal policy of looking to the Nebraskan for political leadership."

He retracted nothing which he admitted having said and expressed little care as what disposition the Legislature may make of the resolutions as he considered himself answerable only to the people of his district.

Following Mr. Clark's speech Mr. Alexander moved that the resolution be read, following which he moved that the resolution be considered.

Mr. Malone, Monroe, moved to indefinitely postpone action upon the resolution.

Mr. Alexander moved to lay the Malone motion upon the table.

This precipitated a harmless colloquy between Malone and Alexander, during which Mr. Calkins of Nassau arose upon personal privilege, "I object to the motion being taken up," he said.

The resolution has been made a special order for the 27th inst., and under rule 25 a unanimous consent of the House would be required in order to take up the resolution out of order.

Mr. Roberson of Suwannee moved that the resolution be considered now.

The Chair ruled in favor of Mr. Calkins' motion that it would require a unanimous consent to take up the resolution now.

At this juncture, Mr. MacWilliams of St. Johns made a motion to adjourn until 10 o'clock Friday morning, which prevailed.

"There's going to be another man in Congress from the Second district after next election," was Representative Alexander's only comment after the meeting adjourned.

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys, and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints causing rheumatism. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Mayor's Court Friday.

In the case of H. G. Kennard, charged with reckless shooting on the street, Mayor Davis imposed a fine of $10 and costs.

Mention was made of this case a few days since, the defendant having caught up with a negro stealing his vegetables and fired at him in an attempt to make him stop.

"Pardon me, sir," he said meekly, "but would you allow me to get another cigar from my coat pocket in case I do not meet you again?"

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

ATTEMPT TO BURN JEFFORDS BUILDING

KEROSENE OIL USED TO SATURATE THE STRUCTURE.

Building Being Occupied Was All That Saved It from Mass of Ruins.

During late Thursday night someone fired the old Jeffords building located at the corner of Magnolia and East Main streets, opposite the new Government site.

The party or parties had first saturated portions of the building with kerosene, and in addition to this had placed an old frying-pan underneath the building filled with kerosene and this was expected to ignite the building so quickly that it would be almost consumed before the arrival of the department.

Their plans were futile in this attempt, however, for the negro woman who resides in the lower part was awakened shortly after the fire had been started and by her prompt action, with the assistance of others, extinguished the flames. Near where the fire was started was found the pan filled with oil, which it was anticipated, would ignite before being discovered.

The firing of this building would no doubt have resulted in others burning, and might have caused a great loss before it could have been checked. It was fortunate that the woman occupying the lower part of the building was awakened in time to prevent any great damage.

It is anticipated that within a short while the building will be replaced with a new and modern brick structure, and the guilty party of this deed could have saved himself great trouble and risk by letting the building be torn away by the owners.

GOOD MONEY FOR FARMING PEOPLE

EAST-ENDERS RECEIVING FINE PRICES FOR POTATO SLIPS.

Have Been Shipping for the Past Two Weeks and the Demand Is Good.

Already growers of the Waldo and Orange Heights section have commenced the shipping of sweet potato "draws" and are receiving fine prices for them.

Friday we were shown a check for something over $100 in payment for one small order and the grower stated that it was about the fourth of this kind that he had received so far this season, besides numerous small quantities that would not reach this amount.

For the past few years there has been a great deal of money made in this manner and it has now become a regular business among a certain number of farmers living in the eastern part of the county, originally being started by T. K. Godbey of Waldo.

The prices obtained for these draws never fall below $1.50 per thousand, unless the order is for an extra large shipment, and in small quantities is even greater, which shows that good money is to be made from the enterprise.

It is stated that there were in the neighborhood of 100,000 bushels of sweet potatoes planted in this manner in that section for the market alone.

Dorsey's Freak Cats.

W. S. Dorsey is the possessor of some cats which were born without tails. He states that he has seen many freaks of nature, but this is the first time that he has owned a freak in the shape of kittens, and the absence of the usual long tail cannot be accounted for. Whether the new variety of cats will thrive and continue to breed in this manner he will not forecast, but he is proud of the animals and will take special care in raising them.

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF FLORIDA

Forty carloads of tomatoes were shipped from Little River last week.

The Hastings Banking Company, with $30,000 capital, began business last week. The potato season being on in Hastings will give it a big boost to start with.

The body of John F. Avery of Greenville, N. C., who had been missing from his boarding house since early Thursday morning, was recently found in the woods near Ortega, just east of Lakeview drive, Jacksonville. He had ended his life by shooting himself in the mouth, the revolver being found near his body with one empty shell.

T. A. Snider, the Cincinnati millionaire catsup manufacturer, purchased last week a large tract of land in Daytona of Louis Adler, situated on South street and extending from Ridgewood to Palmetto avenue, with a frontage on these streets of 220 feet. Mr. Snider, who is a warm personal friend of S. H. Gove, has given Mr. Gove the contract for seven cottages of the California bungalow style. Three more are under consideration to be erected on this property. Mr. Snider is in Hobe Sound for a visit of about two weeks and on his return will complete arrangements for the building of these houses and other improvements which he has in contemplation.

ABSOLUTE CURE OF SKIN ERUPTION

Broke Out on Hips and Legs—Was So Sore, Irritating and Painful that Little Sufferer Could Not Sleep—Scratched Constantly and Kept Growing Worse.

CUTICURA'S EFFECT QUICK AND PERMANENT

"When about two and a half years old my daughter broke out on her hips and the upper parts of her legs with a very irritating and painful eruption. It began in October; the first I noticed was a little red surface and a constant desire on her part to scratch her limbs. She could not sleep and the eruptions got sore, and yellow water came out of them. I had two doctors treat her, but she grew worse under their treatment. Then I bought the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent, and only used them two weeks when she was entirely well. This was in February. She has never had another rough place on her skin, and she is now fourteen years old. I used only half the bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and less than a box of Cuticura Ointment. Mrs. R. R. Whitaker, Winchester, Tenn., Sept. 22, 1908."

WOMEN

Everywhere Use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment

For preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, for dry, thin and falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for annoying irritations and ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, anti-septic purposes as well as for all the uses of the toilet, bath and nursery. Guaranteed absolutely pure and may be used from the hour of birth.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (2c) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c) to Heal the Skin and Cuticura Resolvent (50c), (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills 25c, per box of 60) to Purify the Blood. ### THE WILY COMEDIAN.

His Mixup With a Contract, a Legal Fee and an Opinion.

There was a certain comic opera comedian who made no end of money and who scorned anything like ostentatious recklessness in the spending of it. He was almost morbid on the subject, in fact, and there were those who said that he went to evening instead of morning service so that he might have the use of the money he dropped into the box a little longer. This is by way of explaining the grief which once befell him in Cleveland.

Somebody had played an engagement at a certain theater and had received a frigid reception, which stage people call a frost. The comedian wasn't going to run any risks. He wouldn't play at the theater unless a certain amount of money was promised him. The manager of the theater offered a very large percentage of the receipts; but, oh, dear, no, the wily comedian wasn't going to be caught by such chaff as that. He insisted upon a lump sum regardless of receipts. The sum was guaranteed, the contract signed. The comedian came to town and, strolling as if by chance into the box office, asked how the house was selling.

"Oh," said the ticket seller, "we sold every seat in the house ten days ago!" The comedian's blood boiled.

"Would," said he to himself, "oh, would that I had accepted the percentage! It would have been double what I get now."

It was too late, however, to rely on simple wounding to change matters, so he sought the foremost attorney of the town, showed him the contract and expressed his desire to break it and abide by the customary percentage plan. Before the attorney would consent to express an opinion the question of fee came up, and the comedian handed him $500. The man at law then took the paper and examined it.

"My dear sir," said he, "that contract can't possibly be broken. I drew it up myself."

It is not told what the temperature of Cleveland according to the government report was that day, but in the neighborhood of that comedian things fairly sizzled.—Washington Star.

Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It not only heals irritation and allays inflammation, thereby stopping the cough but it also moves the bowels gently and in that way drives the cold from the system. It contains no opiates. ## NO DOWNWARD REVISION IN SENATE TARIFF BILL revisions were instituted between the Aldrich measure and the Dingley law, the question that at once arose was whether the Aldrich plan contemplated the real revision downward promised by the Chicago platform.

Much is being made of the fact the Aldrich bill reduced the duties on gloves and hosiery, in comparison with the Payne bill.

But the duties on these articles in the Aldrich bill are merely put back to the level of the present duties.

The following comparisons do not reveal scarcely any "revision downward" in the Aldrich or new bill:

Hosiery, valued at $1 per dozen pairs: Aldrich bill, 50 cents duty on every dozen and 15 per cent ad valorem; Dingley law, same.

Aldrich bill, gloves, per dozen pairs, $1.75; Dingley law, same.

Aldrich bill, beef, fresh, 2 cents per pound; Dingley law, same.

Pepper, ground, Aldrich bill, 2½ cents per pound; Dingley law, same.

Champagne, per dozen quarts, Aldrich bill, $9.60; Dingley law, $8.

Iron ore, Aldrich bill, 25 cents per ton; Dingley law, same.

Tea, coffee and cocoa are on the free list in the Aldrich bill, but they were on the free list in the Dingley law.

As all administrative features as well as maximum and minimum provisions, the latter of which may increase all duties 20 per cent, are not included in the new bill, no one can know for a certainty what the intentions of Senator Aldrich really are.

He has made explanations, but they have not enlightened. The bill is still merely a skeleton. If it had come from anyone but Aldrich, the Senate would doubtless have resented as an insult the presentation for its consideration of only a portion of bill.

In the framing of legislation Senator Aldrich is a privileged character. There is no certainty, however, that he will pass through the tariff war unscathed. Senator Cummins of Iowa and other insurgents who take the position that the Aldrich rates are too high along the line, may break out at any moment and charge him with framing his bill in the interests of the big corporations.

Col. Patten, a Lieutenant in the Old Guard, an exclusive organization composed of soldiers of distinction who fought in the Civil War, very popular in secret society circles, recommends the famous remedy, Peruna, as a spring tonic.

He says: "I have used Peruna, and desire to recommend your remedy as an invigorating Spring tonic; also one of the best remedies that I ever tried for coughs, colds and catarrhal complaints."

Having read the above testimonial, what conclusion must be reached by any fair-minded, unprejudiced reader? Is there any possibility that a man of the prominence and reputation of Col. Patten could be induced to say such things if he did not honestly believe them to be true?

Remember, he says not only that he recommends Peruna as an invigorating spring tonic, but also as one of the best remedies that he has ever tried for coughs, colds and catarrhal complaints.

What are you going to do with such evidence? Are you going to turn away from it and listen only to the talk of people who probably never saw a bottle of Peruna, certainly never tried a bottle of it, who have nothing else to do but to talk about other people's affairs? Are you going to listen to such people as that, instead of accepting the testimony of those who know?

There may be a few people so constituted as to be able to perform such a mental feat. But the sensible people, the reliable people, the brawn and brain of the world, who are governed by principles of justice and common sense, are going to accept the clear, pointed and undoubted testimony of a man of national reputation who knows what he is talking about.

Peruna is everything he says it is. It is an invigorating spring tonic. It is also a good remedy for coughs. We have many testimonials attesting to this fact. Peruna is manufactured by the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio.

WORTHY OF CONFIDENCE

An Offer Backed Up by One of the Most Reputable Concerns in Gainesville.

We will either cure you of constipation or pay for all the medicine used during the trial. You pay us nothing if we fail. That's a mighty broad statement, and we mean every word of it. We will back it up with our own personal reputation, too. Could anything be more fair and secure for you?

The most scientific, common sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies. Their active principle is a very recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in its action, and particularly agreeable in every way. This ingredient does not cause any diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence or griping. Rexall Orderlies are as pleasant to take as candy and are particularly good for children and delicate persons.

If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember, you can only get them at our stores. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. J. W. McCollum & Co., corner East Main and Union streets.

He Obeyed.

Murat Halstead, the great journalist of war times, went to General William T. Sherman's headquarters once for the "latest news from the front." Halstead was armed with many fine introductory letters, but decided to rely mainly on one given him by Thomas Ewing, Sherman's brother-in-law. He found the general and presented Ewing's letter. The general opened it somewhat impatiently, read a few lines, folded it and said:

"Ah, you come from Ewing, and you desire to have 'all the latest news,' the 'next probable move' of our army, eh? Well, there's a train leaving this town for Cincinnati at 2 o'clock. Here, take this ticket and step over there and get your dinner and then get on that train."

"Well, but, General Sherman"—began the newspaper man. But Sherman waved him off.

"Go over and get a good dinner. We have plenty and always strive to treat our friends well. But be sure you don't miss that 2 o'clock train!" And Halstead obeyed.

Japanese Delicacies.

Under the head of "Japanese Delicacies" the Berlin Prometheus gives a list of some of the queer things which are served to citizens of the Flowery Kingdom who "have a refined taste." In the provinces which are so distant from the sea that fresh fish cannot be obtained readily, and where meat is not abundant, snakes and lizards are considered good food and are prepared in many ways. Grasshoppers rank among the real delicacies. They are always kept in captivity without food for a day, then bathed and decapitated and made legless. Heads and legs must be torn off, never cut. They are served in various ways, but dry, with a salad dressing, is the most popular. An insect of the bee family which lives in the earth is also much sought. This is served with sugar or honey when eaten raw, but it is also made into a porridge. The chrysanthemum exists not only in the poetry and art of the Japanese, but has an important place on the table, where it is met as salad, candy and stew.

How Germany Deals With the Waster.

Germany has a law that provides that if it can be proved that a man is earning a sufficient wage to support those dependent on him, but that he is dissipating that wage by vicious habits, he can be declared a minor, and he is then treated as a child. His employer is told that the wage must be paid not to the man, but to a guardian appointed by the magistrate of the district in which he lives, who uses it for the support of the wife and children. In England a man who could not get his wage might refuse to work. In Germany the police would see that he did his work.—Progress.

COAL AS FUEL.

It Was In Use as Far Back as the Time of King Solomon.

The first mention of coal in the annals of mankind occurs in the Bible. Proverbs xxvi, 21, as follows: "As coals are to burning coals and wood to fire, so is a contentious man to kindle strife." This was written about 1016 B. C., at the time King Solomon came into power. Part of his dominion was Syria, and ancient coal mines are worked in that country today. There are several other references to coal in the Bible, all of a later date. Tools and cinders have been found near the Roman wall, indicating that the Britons were familiar with the use of coal prior to the Roman invasion in 54 B. C. The first actual record of a coal transaction is the receipt for twelve cart loads of coal written by the good abbot of Peterborough, A. D. 852.

Years before the Christian era coal was in common use in China. Anthracite coal is powdered, mixed with wet clay and rolled into balls. These are dried in the sun, and the poor use this fuel in little hand furnaces precisely as they did centuries ago. Marco Polo speaks of seeing in 1275 "a kind of black stone in Cathay that is used to burn better than wood." Marco Polo's countrymen refused to believe the traveler's tale.

The earliest historic mention of coal in the United States is by the French Jesuit missionary father Hennepin, who in his journal in 1679 speaks of traces of coal appearing on the banks of the Illinois river and makes the site of a "cole mine" on the James river, near Richmond, the first mine opened for the market. In 1796 anthracite was discovered in the Wyoming valley and a sample of the coal sent to Thomas and William Penn in London.—Carrington Phelps in Metropolitan Magazine.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

GAINESVILLE,
—THE—
University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

OCEAN TRAVEL.

Luxury That Grooms the Passengers on an Atlantic Liner.

The luxury of ocean travel has reached such a state of perfection that land bred and timid passengers may almost delude themselves into thinking that they are still on shore when they are in the middle of the ocean.

When the luncheon bugle sounds you go in to tidy your hair. The sun is shining in through your window or at least one of the windows, for there are two in your drawing room, one in the bathroom and one in the bedroom beyond. Your drawing room—which might be in the Winter palace, Nice, for all the resemblance it bears to a ship's cabin—is furnished in old gold and white. A soft carpet of old gold, a sofa piled luxuriantly with cushions, several chairs, a table, a wonderfully equipped desk, on which rests a drop light, are at your disposal. You stop a moment to admire the panels and etchings and the hangings, which are embroidered with drooping wistaria in faint green. An electric grate fire, with a genuine mantel, leads an air of spaciousness to the room. You notice that your gowns have been hung in one closet and your blouses in another and that shoes, slippers, umbrella, etc., have been carefully stowed away in places provided for them.

The third day out, if the weather is fine, is the social height of the trip. The ship's types are by this time all fully developed. The bridge sends have become known to each other, and they never leave their game except for meals. There is the usual contingent that each morning comes around to tell you how early they were on deck. You have stood at the prow and watched the schools of dolphins jumping straight for the ship, you have rushed excitedly to the rail to watch a passing steamer with which your vessel exchanges salutes by running up innumerable little flags, and you have marveled at the land birds that always follow the ship across, and perhaps you ask the steward to set out some fresh water and a plate of crumbs for them.

If you enjoy spontaneous vaudeville the hour in the ship's gymnasium will be your regular rendezvous every morning, and aside from the fun which you will have in watching the others perform unaccustomed stunts on the frisky camel, the spirited horse or with the vibrators you will receive direct benefit from the exercises, which are the best thing to be recommended for the maintenance of sea legs.—Harriet Quimby in Leslie's Weekly.

ALDEN'S NAPLES STORY.

A Glass of Capri Wine and a Statue That Nodded.

The late W. L. Alden, the humorist, was one of the most abstemious of men—in fact, he was pretty near being a teetotaler. I don't know that I ever saw him take wine or spirits in all the years I knew him except a glass of claret at the midday and evening meals during his last illness.

During the later years of his life he spent the winter abroad, sometimes in Genoa, sometimes in Naples and once, I think, in Cairo, and usually his four or five months' residence on the shores of the Mediterranean would not cost him more than £50.

Once on his return from Naples I remember his telling me this story:

"I, a brother novelist, was in Naples also and asked me one night to dine with him at one of the big hotels on the water front just outside Naples—one of those hotels along that massive stone embankment against which the waves of the sea often break in showers of spray thirty or forty feet high.

"After dinner we went for a walk along the embankment, and we got pretty well drenched with the spray. Soon we reached a statue, and, lo, it nodded gravely toward us!

"Did you see that statue nod?" said I to me.

"I certainly did," said I.

"Well," said he, "I'm going back to the hotel and to bed before I get run in. It's that confounded Capri wine."

"So, ashamed of ourselves, back we went and sneaked up to bed. But at breakfast table next morning both of us seemed to be amazingly fresh considering our dissipation of the night before, and we could not understand why we had such good appetites until the waiter said:

"Did the gentlemen feel last night's slight earthquake?"—Pearson's Weekly.

A Medal of Blood.

Garibaldi was once presented with a medal made of his own blood. The giver was Dr. Manini of Naples, who was well known as a petrifactor and preserver of the human body. Dr. Manini in offering his gift to Garibaldi said that whenever the general looked at it it would brace him up for the last fight, and across the medal were engraved the words, "The Blood of Garibaldi is Forever Red." The strange medal is preserved by the general's descendants.

True dignity is never gained by place and never lost when honors are withdrawn.—Massinger.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Under and by virtue of an execution issued out of the County Judge's Court of Alachua county, Florida, on the 15th day of February, A. D. 1909, in a certain cause therein pending wherein G. B. Brockington, S. L. Brown, Abe Broom, Henry Peterson, J. S. Sanderson, J. W. Scott and A. G. Griffin, as Trustees for Bethlehem M. E. Church, were plaintiffs, and William McCray was defendant, and wherein judgment in favor of the plaintiffs was rendered and filed and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Alachua county, Florida, I. P. G. Ramsey, as Sheriff of Alachua county, Florida, have levied upon and will sell before the court house door in Gainesville, Alachua county, Florida, on Monday, the 3rd day of May, A. D. 1909, between the legal hours of sale on said day, all the following described real estate, lying and being in the County of Alachua and State of Florida, to-wit: All of the Northeast quarter of the Southeast quarter of Section 5, Township 8, South of Range 19 East, lying North of the Old Black Creek road, except the Ten-acre Lot of Rosetta Madisons and the One-half-acre Lot belonging to the plaintiffs, containing, by estimation, thirty acres of land, more or less.

Together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or appertaining. Said property levied upon as the property of William McCray to satisfy said execution and costs.

P. G. RAMSEY, Sheriff.
J. M. RIVERS, Plaintiffs' Attorney.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 2

The Dollar That Can't Be Spent

By Herbert Kaufman

Every dollar spent in advertising is not only a seed dollar which grows a profit for the merchant but is actually retained by him even after he has paid it to the publisher.

Advertising creates a good will worth the cost of the publicity.

It actually costs nothing. While it uses funds it does not use them up. It helps the founder of a business to grow rich and at the same time keeps his business from not dying when he does.

It eliminates the personal equation. It perpetuates confidence in the store and makes it possible for a merchant to withdraw from business without having the profits of the business withdrawn from him. It changes a name to an institution—an institution that will survive after the death of its builder.

It is really an insurance policy which costs nothing—pays a premium each year instead of calling for one, and renders it possible to change the entire personnel of a business without disturbing its prosperity.

Advertising renders the business stronger than the man—independent of his presence. It permanentizes systems of merchandising, the track of which is left for others to follow.

A business which is not advertised must rely upon the personality of its proprietor, and personality in business is a decreasing factor. The public does not want to know the man who owns the store—it isn't interested in him, but in his goods. When an unadvertised business is sold it is only worth as much as its stock of goods and fixtures. There is no good will to be paid for—it does not exist—it has not been created. The name over the door means nothing except to the limited stream of people from the immediate neighborhood, any of whom could tell you more about some store ten miles away which has regularly delivered its shop news to their breakfast tables.

It is as shortsighted for a man to build a business which dies with his death or ceases with his inaction as it is unfair for him not to provide for the continuance of its income to his family.

(Copyright, 1908, by Tribune Company, Chicago.)

Are YOU Being "Hunted?"

One of today's want ads. may be hunting you—ransacking the city for you. It may have a message for you of urgent personal importance—one that, when you get it, and heed it, may change the immediate currents of your activities, of your interests—may even place around and about you new environments, new associates; may give you an entirely new start in a business way.

Isn't it worth while to try to find out whether this may not be true—today, tomorrow, or very soon?
